Who are we?

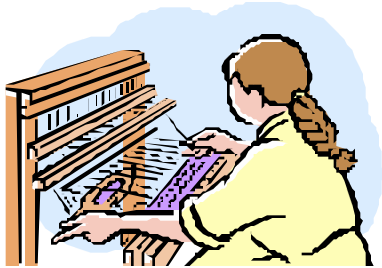

We are a community of weavers and spinners with a common interest in sharing our craft among ourselves and with members of the public.

Our guild, the Weavers Guild of Miami Valley, was originally organized in 1949. We are a non-profit educational organization promoting handweaving, handspinning and related textile arts.

Our members include beginners and professionals, young and older. We live in Ohio's Miami Valley area, and as far away as Florida and Alabama.

Who can join?

Anyone interested in spinning or weaving is welcome to join our group. Feel free to drop in on one of our meetings.

Why should I join?

When you join our community of weavers and spinners, you are connected to craft that is both utilitarian and expressive, and to others who share knowledge and passion for the craft.

As a member, your benefits include:

- Monthly newsletter
- Access to an extensive library
- Weaving and spinning equipment for rent
- Educational workshops
- Weaving and spinning events
- Opportunities to display or sell our work
- A friendly community of weaving and spinning enthusiasts

Tell me more!

Our meetings are usually held on the second Tuesday evening of the month, September through June, at the John Bryan Center in Yellow Springs. They normally start at 7:00 p.m. with a short business meeting, followed by a program.

If you'd like a free copy of our newsletter, Loom 'n Wheel, or more information about us, send your name, address, and phone number to:
